"When I lived in New Brunswick, I was able to visit my uncle who was full of life and loved gardening. I still remember the 5lb zucchini he gave me along with the recipe for zucchini bread. It was also a privilege to attend Tristan's wedding in 2011.

Although distance keeps us apart, the heart knows it not. We keep the best of everyone we know in our hearts and it sustains us when we need it most.

My sincere condolences to all during this difficult time."
