Paid Notice: Deaths

BERK, HAROLD I.

BERK--Harold I., Jack Lichstein, Joel Stoltz and the employees of Aberdeen Sportswear Inc. mourn the loss of our dear friend and leader, Harold Berk. Mr. Berk was the co-founder of Aberdeen Sportswear Inc. and helped build it into one of the industry's leading companies. We all had the privilege of celebrating with him the 50th anniversary of the company in 2006. His leadership, humility and warmth will be deeply missed.

BERK--Harold I., died peacefully at home on November 23, 2007, at age 93, widower of Elaine Alkus Berk, his beloved wife of 67 years. He is survived by his brother, Mortimer Berk; nieces, Wendy Berk and Leslie Johnston; nephew, Richard Berk; grandnieces, Emily Ross, Meredith Dunlap, Stephanie Johnston and Rachel Berk; grandnephew, Michael Berk; greatgrandniece, Sonja Rose Dunlap; great-grandnephew, Seth Dunlap; loving caregiver and friend, Debbie Haynes. Mr. Berk was an abiding congregant of Temple Emanu-El and the devoted friend and partner for a half century of Jack Lichstein and Joel Stoltz in Aberdeen Sportswear Inc. The funeral will be at Noon on Wednesday, November 28 at "The Riverside," on Amsterdam Avenue at 76th Street. Burial will follow at Beth Moses Cemetery, Farmingdale, L.I. The family requests, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Temple Emanu-El, 1 E. 65th Street, NYC 10065.

BERK--Harold. Congregation Emanu-El of the City of New York expresses to the family of our devoted member, Harold Berk, our deepest sympathies on the occasion of his passing. It is our hope and prayer that beautiful memories will linger as a legacy to his life. May all who loved him be comforted. Rabbi David M. Posner Marcia Waxman, President Roberta A. Calinoff, Secretary
